

The connection between Bollywood and weddings is undisputed. Celebrity bridal looks and what the stars have worn to their friend's weddings have been the top-grossing outfits on our feeds and whether it's reel or real weddings, we're finding that both feed off each other. Bollywood with its larger-than-life storytelling and elaborate song and dance sequences has largely contributed to the evolution of the big fat Indian wedding by dramatizing simple traditions. (Think about it—were grand sangeets even a thing before Hum Aapke Hain Kaun! On the other hand, an Indian wedding is incomplete without Bollywood-inspired glitz and glamour—especially in the fashion department. Year after year, Bollywood has been the harbinger of wedding trends. It was only fitting to curate a list of 2023's best-dressed Bollywood belles—a moodboard for India's perennial shaadi season.

Kiara Advani

Need a crash course on how to pull off a pastel bridal look? Look no further than Kiara Advani's rose pink, ombre lehenga, custom-made by Manish Malhotra. The crystal-embellished outfit was offset by contrasting emerald and diamond jewellery.

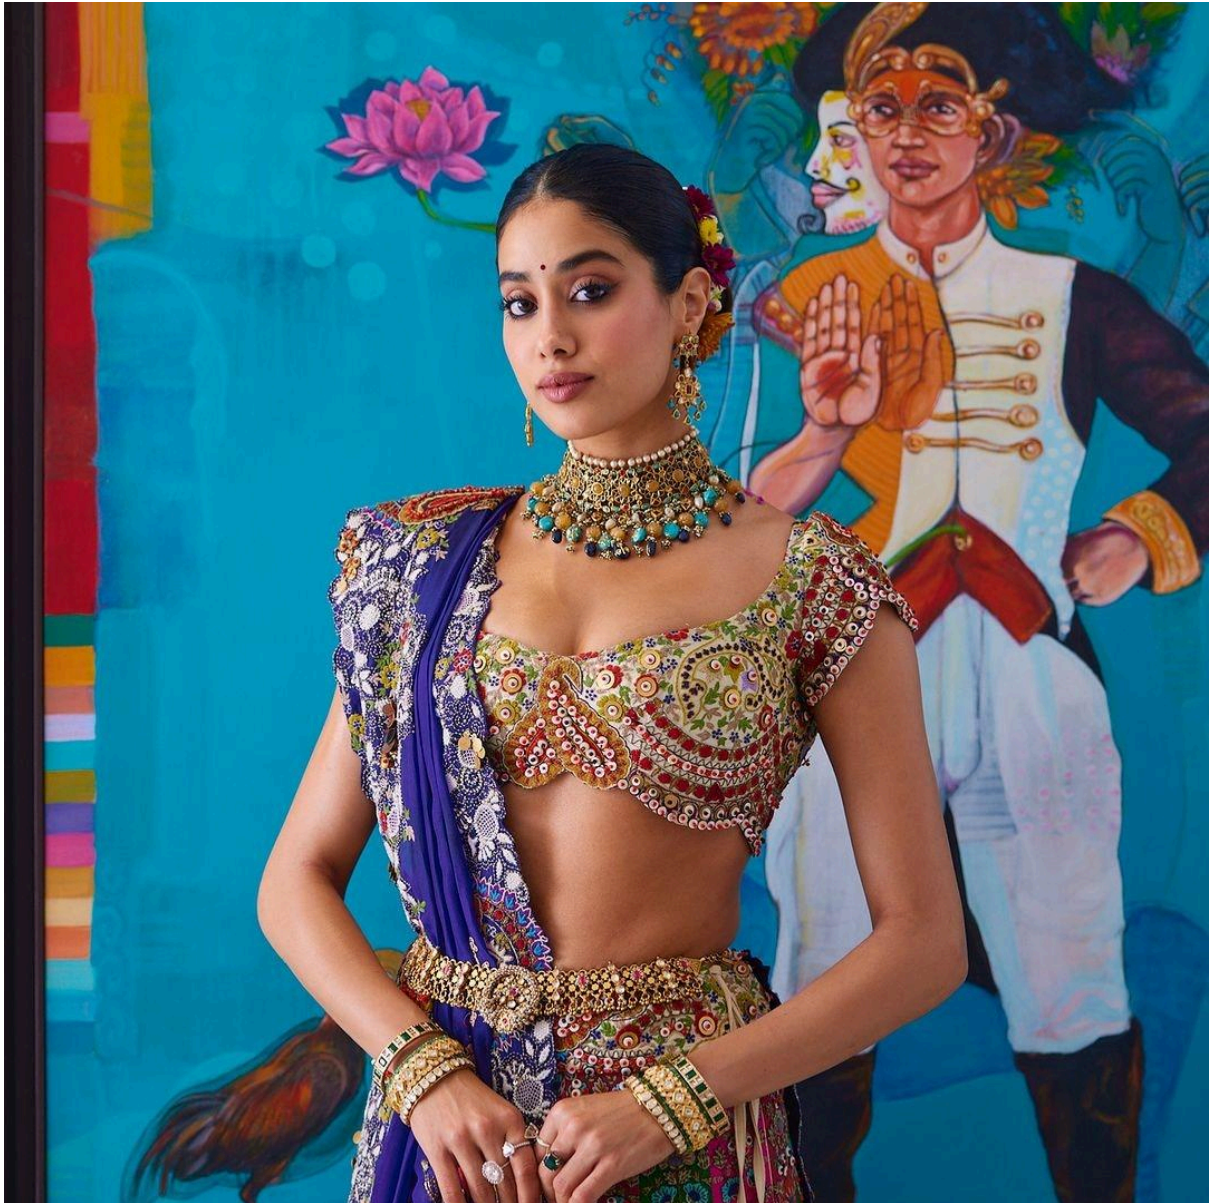

Alia Bhatt

MOST POPULAR

Trust Alia Bhatt to give us something fresh and fuss-free. For her friend's wedding, the actor was spotted in an organza applique sari by Anavila. The look was styled with a choker, delicate earrings and au naturel makeup—perfect for bridesmaids' duties.

JHANVI KAPOOR

FASHION

Janhvi Kapoor's vibrant lehenga includes embroideries from Gujarat.

Rajasthan and West Bengal

Trust Alia Bhatt to give us something fresh and fuss-free. For her friend's wedding, the actor was spotted in an organza applique sari by Anavila. The look was styled with a choker, delicate earrings and au naturel makeup—perfect for bridesmaids' duties.

Alia Bhatt, in fact, makes it to our list twice. While accepting her National award, the actor wore her ivory and gold Sabyasachi wedding sari—a reminder to ditch the OTT pieces for classics that'll see you through the years.

Deepika Padukone

For a high fashion look, take notes from Deepika Padukone's custom Anamika Khanna ensemble—a tailored pant suit and cape. The outfit was heavily embellished and styled with vintage jewellery—what's not to love?

Sonam Kapoor

Love a contemporary twist for your sari? Look no further than Sonam Kapoor Ahuja's shibori jamdani sari, paired with a jamdani kaftan—easy, breezy and yet so chic!

Athiya Shetty

For her wedding, Athiya Shetty opted for a dull rose Anamika Khanna lehenga with zardozi and chikankari. We particularly loved the vintage-inspired blouse—intricate, yet subtle enough for the bride's personality to shine through.

Masaba Gupta

Masaba Gupta gave us a memorable bridal look with her 'barfi pink' lehenga paired with two kitschy dupattas featuring wallflower and heart motifs, each. The piece also came with a detachable veil, perfect for multi-use.
